number of passengers, many of whom came south to escape the exceptionally cold weather in the northern states.

SOUTHERN FARM LANDL. & N. R. R. WORKING ENERGETI-CALLY TO INDUCE PEOPLE TO SETTLE IN THIS SECTION.
SOMETHING ABOUT THE WORK OF DR. CRAWFORD, TRAVELING PASSENGER AGENT.Dr. R. B. Crawford, of Chicago, traveling passenger agent for the Louisville and Nashville railroad, one of the most untiring and energetic boomers of the possibilities of the southern states who has been in this city for a few days with a number of excusionists who are seeking homes in the south, will return to Chicago in a few days to bring south another party which will depart from the Win-City on February 21. Dr. Crawford is enthusiastic over the immense possibilities of this section and talked with a Journal representative for some time yesterday regarding the work of the passenger department of the Louisville and Nashville is doing to build up every section traversed by its lines.Three weeks ago a party numbering 120 were brought to this section and shown the surrounding country. In the last party, the one arriving a few days ago there were but 30 with the doctor, the train upon which they were traveling having been split up into two sections at Montgomery, the section he was on missing connections at Flomaton. He estimates that least 75 came to this city. About 50 per cent of these tourists are searching for homes in the south and many of them settle in the country contiguous to Pensacola.Will Settle at Roberts.
A Mr. Nichols who came south with the last party was so much pleased with the country in the vicinity of Roberts that he made arrangements for the purchase of a large tract of land for himself and those with whom he is associated and will, with the others, soon return to that place and make it his home thereafter.Three years ago, Mr. Crawford was instrumental in locating what is known as the Industrial Association at Gatesville. The organization, of which Prof. Page and Goodhead are the leaders, purchased 1,000 acres of land and immediately began diversified farming.
Last year they had what is supposed to be the largest sugar cane field in the south. This field covered 52 acres and upon it was grown cane sufficient to make 15,000 gallons of symp for which the association is receiving 50 cents per gallon. The Industrial Association is said to be possessed of the most modern machinery of every description to be found anywhere in the southern states and the members of it are greatly pleased with the success they have had.Well Advertised.
Southern lands are advertised thoroughly by the Louisville and Nashville all through the northern states and Dr. Crawford devotes his entire time to this branch of the business—inducing tourists to visit the south and arranging parties whom he personally conducts.That both Dr. Crawford and the Louisville and Nashville railroad are doing all they can for the southern states is evidenced by the fact that on the back of the doctor's card, along with a table showing the profits per acre that can be secured on southern farms, are the words "Dividends now ready—Please call or write and get yours at once."TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY

ATTACHED BY WRECKERS.Key West correspondence in Miami Metropolis: The British steamer Ackworth was piloted into the harbor Wednesday by Pilot Josh Smith. The Ackworth is coal laden and bound from Norfolk, Va., to Matanzas, Cuba. She ran ashore on Triumph shoals Monday, the 21st. Two hundred tons of coal were jettisoned before the steamer was floated, which was done by wreckers from Key West.A contract was made between the captain and the wreckers, whereby the vessel was floated, whereby the former agreed to give the latter $10,000.
There are eighty men in the wreck with Capt. Rob Pinder, wrecking master. A survey was ordered and the following board was appointed: Captain Saunders, James R. Curry and Coast St. Johns. A diver examined the bottom of the vessel and found it undamaged. The underwriters refused to satisfy the agreement of the captain. The steamer has been attached and the court will determine the amount of salvage.Superintendent Burns is getting lower Palafox street in good shape, having graded the street on both sides of the street car tracks and removed all mud and refuse matter of every description. If the Terminal Company would follow the good example that portion of the main business thoroughfare would be in fine shape.A new use has been found for the city wharf and the approach thereto.
It is now used as a storage place for worn out boilers, ancient anchors, old and new pipe and such a miscellaneous collection of old junk that it can no longer be used by the public. Even Chief Schach's notice to the effect that "This wharf is exclusively for passengers" is nearly covered up.THE LIBRARY ENTERTAINMENTLARGE AND BRILLIANT AUDIENCE GREATLY PLEASED WITH RE-CITAL OF HERR AND
MME. GRIENAUER.Library Hall held a large and brilliant audience last night and the assemblage, gathered to greet the famous cellist, Karl Griener, and his beautiful and accomplished wife, enjoyed the occasion from the first moment until the close, when the two artists retired from the stage bowing and smiling in answer to the enthusiastic applause.While no attempt will be made at this time to enter into an elaborate description of the program, it must be said that it was most satisfactory and interesting. Among the numbers given by Herr Griener were:Goltermann—Concerto in A Minor, Contabile e Allegro.
(a) Godart, On the Lake; (b) Moszowski, Zur Gitarre; (c) Rubenstein, Melodie; (d) Popper, Dance of the Elves.(a) Schumann, Reverie; (b) Herbert, Serenade; (c) Griener, "Moonlight." (d) Piat, Scherzo des Basques.
(a) Rubinstein, Wanderer's Night Song; (b) Brahms, Gipsy Melodie; (c) Haendel, Aria from Xerxes—Mme. and Herr Griener.(Songs with Celio Obligato)*English words: Trust in the Lord. His name we ever bless, in grief and happiness, with one accord. He orders all our ways, to him ascend our lays, in praise and prayer. Until our journey's end, O Lord, our souls defend with watchful care—Mme and Herr Griener.Popper—Hungarian Rhapsodie.
Madame Griener has a very good soprano voice and sang with evidence of careful and capable training. Her selections were charming, and her personality added much to the pleasure given by her songs, as she played nearly all of her own accompaniments and showed skill and appreciation at the piano.The selection "Moonlight," by Herr Griener was especially appreciated by the audience.INVITATIONS FOR CONCERT WITHDRAWN.In order not to interfere with the success of the concert to be given February 21 by Mrs. Scarritt Moreno for the benefit of Christ Church, invitations for the Martha Washington tea and concert which were issued by St. Catharine's Guild have been withdrawn and arrangements for the affair discontinued. The invitations were issued last week.

The Eye of a Giraffe.

Giraffes are the most difficult of all animals to take by surprise. No matter from what direction you may approach the giraffe is sure to discover you. It has been called the original "rubberneck." It is not generally known that nature, because of the height of its eyes from the ground, has supplied it with a talent peculiarly its own for making observations. As a matter of fact, a giraffe can see in all directions at the same time without moving its head. The eyes are large and prominent and so placed at the side of the head that, bulging out as they do, they are capable of seeing backward as well as forward.

The Sea of Space.

The human mind cannot comprehend what is meant by the four little words in the expression "the sea of space." If the volume of "space" included within our solar system—which is perhaps but a single train of planets among hundreds of millions of a similar kind —were occupied by one single globe 5,600,000,000 miles in diameter it would be but as a feather in the marvelous spread of "vacancy" surrounding it. In fact, it has been calculated that in the space occupied by our solar system 2,700,000,000,000,000 globes the size of our earth could revolve, each at a distance of 500,000 miles from the other.

it to Doan's Kidney Pills. For more than two years I had difficulty with my kidneys, causing me to get up several times during the night and which was very annoying. I tried a number of remedies, but seemed to get no relief. When I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised I was feeling dull and miserable and could hardly get around so I went to Sidney Kahn's drug store, No. 9 South Palafox street, and secured a box. After using the first one the second box I was cured. My rest misery feeling vanished."For sale by all dealers. Price 50

AMUSEMENTS.

THE STORY OF "DIPLOMACY."

The story of "Diplomacy," which Miss Rose Coghlan will present in an extraordinary revival here to-night is conceded to be one of the most exciting and powerful ever contrived by the great French dramatist Sardou.
Its prime motive is the jealousy of a woman scorned, who takes a base revenge on a gallant English army captain and his sweetheart, Dora.The scorned woman, Countess Zicka, is in the pay of the Russian government to which she transmits from time to time secret information concerning the British foreign office.
Taking advantage of her intimacy with the young man, she steals from a dispatch box a priceless official document and sends it to her superiors at St. Petersburg, at the same time managing to throw the blame for the theft upon her rival, Dora.At first Zicka's plans seem to attain complete success, so that husband and wife are parted by the suspicion that Dora has betrayed her husband.A day of reckoning comes for Zicka when Julian's brother, Henri, undertakes the task of discovering the real culprit. Several clues point to the foreign countess as the one who has wrecked the happiness of the young couple, and finally Henri proves con-clusively that she visited Julian's private apartments and abstracted the document, whereupon the young couple are reunited.The scene of the play is laid in Monte Carlo and Paris in the year 1876, when England and Russia were on the very brink of war over the Eastern question, and the characters are modeled on some of the great diplomatic and society figures of that day. "Diplomacy" has been translated into the language of almost every civilized country and has yielded fabulous sums to its authors and proprietors in royalties and fees.It has enlisted for its proper presentment such eminent actors as Sir Squire Bancroft, Mr. and Mrs. Kendal, Lester Wallack, Charles Coghlan, Maurice Barrymore, Frederick Warde and many others.Among them all Miss Coghlan has been the most closely identified with the role, and it was her Countess Zicka that carried the play on to a great wave of prosperity at its first production in New York at Wallack's Theatre. Miss Coghlan's present revival of "Diplomacy" forms one of the most interesting dramatic events of the season. In her support will appear Lynn Pratt, Louis Muldener, Mortimer H. Wilson, Eleanor Walburg, Suzanne Santje, Cecil Kingstone, George H. Lindeman, R. G. Thomas and Henry Austin.
